

The University of Denver & Dementia Friendly Denver Present

Reducing Your Risk for Alzheimer's and Dementia

A Community Education Event

Saturday, September 30, 9:00 until 11:00 AM

Event will be held in the June Swaner Gates Concert Hall in the Robert and Judi Newman Center for the Performing Arts, located on the University of Denver Campus
2344 E. Iliff Ave., Denver

Admission Is Free – Doors Open at 8:30 AM

Get Answers to Questions Like:

- How can I reduce my family's risk for dementia?
- What is the difference between Alzheimer's and dementia?
- What are the warning signs for dementia?
- How do I communicate with someone with dementia?
- What are the latest research updates?
- What resources are available in my community?

"There is new hope for breakthroughs in research and real things you can do to reduce your risk for dementia" - Dr. Lotta Granholm Bentley,

"The best two hours you will ever spend to reduce your risk for dementia. This is a great opportunity to come to the DU campus to learn together." - Barbe Ratcliffe, Executive Director, DU Osher Lifelong Learning Institute

"Everyone in the Denver area is invited to come learn how risk for dementia can be reduced. Get a group of friends together and don't miss this important community event." - JJ Jordan, Community Chair, Dementia Friendly Denver

*On street campus parking or self-pay parking at the Newman Center garage ($8 cash only)
Light rail access via the E, F and H lines*

SPONSORED BY

